Lecture Notes

• The speech to text notes generated is a highly achievable and impactful AI-powered project designed to solve the challenge of note-taking during lectures. Utilizing free and low-cost technologies like OpenAI's Whisper AI for transcription and Google Gemini for text processing, the tool will convert spoken content into organized, searchable and reusable study materials such as summaries and flashcards.